ABC/MMA policy regarding YEP volunteer supervision:

We will directly oversee/supervise your child only during the time he or she is with us. We will not assume any responsibility for your child's whereabouts before coming to us or after leaving the YEP program. Upon their arrival at ABC/MMA, each YEP volunteer will sign-in and include the time of his or her arrival. Upon departure, each YEP volunteer will sign-out, include the time of his or her departure and method of going home (walk, public transportation, parent/caretaker pick-up.) You will be able to review this sign-in/sign-out sheet at any time. In addition, we will attempt to contact you directly if your child is absent and has not notified us of his or her absence in advance.

Method of my child's arrival: _____ Method of my child's departure: _____

YEP volunteers may be sent to get supplies between our agency buildings and will do so unsupervised. For some YEP positions, students are given a break and they will not be supervised during this time.

I have reviewed the ABC/MMA policy stated above regarding supervision of my child when he or she is participating in the YEP program. I agree to the limits of supervision by ABC/MMA staff over my child as indicated in this policy. I have reviewed the position descriptions on www.agassiz.org and I give my child permission to apply for the positions they have listed on the Student Application Form.
