

Afterschool Teachers lead developmentally appropriate and engaging activities and lessons in visual arts, sports, cooking, math, science, and more for our K and 1st-5th Grade Afterschool Programs.

Agassiz Baldwin Community Kindergarten and 1st-5th Grade Afterschool Programs serve local children and their families. Teachers present activities during community meetings and children make decisions about how they spend their time after school. Past activities include organized sports and games, jewelry making, philosophy, origami, gymnastics, juggling, batik, fashion design, gardening, cooking, and more!

We are located at 20 Sacramento Street, a large Victorian house in Cambridge, MA with access to a beautiful backyard and art studio space at Maud Morgan Arts. The 1st-5th Grade Afterschool is run out of the Maria L. Baldwin School with access to the Sacramento Field and Alden Park. The majority of parking is available to residents of the city; use of public transportation is encouraged.

Applicants should:

- Have at least one year of experience working with children age 4-11
- Demonstrate excellence in developing activities with an emphasis on collaboration and community building for groups of 10-12 children
- Preferred:
 - Be available for the full school year
 - First Aid/CPR Certification (ABC provides opportunity)

Teacher Commitments:

- Teamwork: problem-solve with team to support positive impact on youth and their families, demonstrate flexibility (ex.) openness to teaching all types of activities depending on program needs)
- Communication and Understanding: share and receive different perspectives to understand diverse needs of staff, youth, and their families
- Inclusion: ongoing personal reflection around biases including but not limited to racial and gender equity
- Social Emotional Learning: receive training on and use Nurtured Heart Approach when working with program youth
